Atlas of Living Australia
ala.org.au
10 YEARS

10 years in stats

Celebrating a decade of delivering trusted biodiversity data to support research and decision-making.

NCRIS
National Research Infrastructure for Australia
An Australian Government Initiative

CSIRO

91,137,295
species occurrence records

1,880,920
dataset downloads

27 countries
around the world using ALA infrastructure and source code

700+
datasets from data partners across research, government and citizen science

78,300
registered users

919,919
museum specimen labels transcribed by 8,529 DigiVol volunteers

371,890
pages of Australian literature digitised for the Biodiversity Heritage Library

2,328
scientific journal publications referencing ALA

1,184,255
records for Australian Magpie (Gymnorhina tibicen), the most recorded species in the ALA

99% of data
in the ALA have Creative Commons licences

Numbers correct as at November 2020