Open Source Developers Conference

November 14-18

Canberra

Sponsoring OSDC

The Open Source Developers Conference is a not-for-profit conference covering all aspects of open source technology - from software and systems to open data. For the past 7 years OSDC has been held across Australia, in recent years drawing in excess of 300 attendees, and hosting talks by leaders and luminaries of Open Source Technology.

This year, for five days starting November 14th, the Open Source Developers Conference is taking place in Canberra, and we are seeking sponsors to help make the conference an outstanding success.

Contact Us

To find out more about the Open Source Developers Conference and about sponsorship, or if you have any enquiries, please contact OSDC's Sponsorship Director Terence Chia.
